ORGANIZATION OF THE SOCIETY.

A preliminary meeting with reference to the organization of a Maine Society of the Sons of the American Revolution was held in the Library Room of the Maine Historical Society, in Portland, February 21, 1891. Among those present were Hon. George F. Talbot, Hon. Josiah H. Drummond, Hon. Warren H. Vinton, Hon. E. P. Burnham, Hon. Marquis F. King, Major Charles H. Boyd, Mr. Eben Corey, Wm. M. Sargent, Esq., Mr. H. W. Bryant and Rev. Henry S. Burrage, D.D. After consideration of the objects and work of the proposed Society, committees were appointed to examine and report upon applications for membership; to draft a Constitution and By-Laws; and to nominate officers. At an adjourned meeting held at the same place February 28, the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws reported a draft of the same, which was laid upon the table for future action. The Committee on Membership then reported. At an adjourned meeting, held March 14, also at the same place, the proposed Constitution and By-Laws were taken from the table and, after discussion and amendment, were adopted. On the 28th day of March, the organization of the Society was completed by the election of officers, who were duly chosen to serve until February 22, 1892.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

SECTION 1. — The name of this Society shall be the Maine Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

ARTICLE II.

NATIONAL SOCIETY.

SEC. 2. — This Society is a part of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. It recognizes all State Societies of Sons of the American Revolution as co-equal and entitled to receive from this Society such assistance and information as may best promote the objects for which these Societies have been organized.

ARTICLE III.

OBJECT.

SEC. 3. — The objects of this Society are to perpetuate the memory and the spirit of the men who achieved American Independence; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to provide for the preservation of documents, relics and records of the individual services of Revolutionary soldiers and patriots; to promote the celebration of patriotic anniversaries; and by these and other means to impress upon the present and future generations the patriotic spirit which actuated our ancestors and established the Republic of the United States of America.

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 4 — Any man resident in Maine and not less than twenty-one years of age, who is descended from an ancestor who was either a military or a naval officer, soldier, sailor or official in the service of the original thirteen Colonies or States, who assisted in establishing American Independence in the War of the Revolution, shall be eligible for membership in this Society ; and any man, wherever resident, who is descended from a Maine Revolutionary ancestor who performed like service, shall also be eligible.

SEC. 5. — For the purpose of making more perfect the records of our Revolutionary ancestors and their descendants, any woman of Revolutionary ancestry may file a record of her ancestor's services and of her line of descent with the Registrar of this Society, who shall send a duplicate to the Registrar-General.

SEC. 6. — All applications for membership in this Society shall be made in duplicate, upon blank forms furnished by the Society. They shall be signed with the full name and address of the applicant, and shall also be signed by at least one member of the Society nominating and recommending the applicant.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS.

SEC. 7. — The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-Presidents not exceeding sixteen, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, a Librarian, a Historian, a Chaplain, and five Councilors, all of whom shall be citizens of this State ; and these shall be a Board of Managers whose duty it shall be to conduct the affairs of the Society. Five of this board shall constitute a quorum for doing business. The Board of Managers shall have power to fill any vacancy occurring among the officers of this Society or delegates to the National Society; and officers so appointed shall serve till the next annual meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

TERMS OF OFFICE.

SEC. 8. — All officers shall be elected for one year, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 9. — A meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of business shall be held annually in the City of Portland, on the 22d day of February, or if said day falls on Sunday then the following day. At each annual meeting, there shall be elected one delegate at large and one delegate for each one hundred or fraction of one hundred exceeding fifty members; said delegates, together with such officers as are provided for by the Constitution of that body, shall represent this Society at all meetings of the National Society.

SEC. 10. — Seven shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Society.

SEC. 11. — The hour for holding the annual meeting, and the time and place for holding any special meeting, shall be designated by the Board of Managers.

SEC. 12. — Special meetings of the Society shall be called by the President, when directed so to do by the Board of Managers, or whenever requested in writing by fifteen or more members, on giving fifteen days' notice, specifying the time and place of such meeting and the business to be transacted.

SEC. 13. — Special meetings of the Board of Managers may be called by the President at any time, and shall be called upon the request of five members of the Board made in writing.

SEC. 14. — General business may be transacted at any special meeting of the Board of Managers, or of the Society.

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 15. — This Constitution may be amended or repealed, provided written resolutions to that effect are first presented to and approved by a majority of the Board of Managers, present at any meeting of said Board ; provided said amendments are subsequently approved by a majority of the members present at any meeting of the Society ; and provided, further, that whenever this Constitution is to be amended, repealed, or in any way changed, notice thereof, specifying said changes in full, shall be sent to each member of the Society at least ten days before such action is to be taken.

BY-LAWS.

FEES AND DUES.

SECTION 1. — Applicants elected shall become members of this Society upon payment of the membership fees and dues for one year. The membership fee shall be two dollars, and the annual dues one dollar. Annual dues shall be payable to the Secretary on the 22d day of February in each year. A member who shall remain in arrears for dues for three months after notice of his indebtedness has been mailed to him, directed to his last known residence, may be dropped from the rolls by the Board of Managers, and may be re-instated in his membership by said Board upon payment of his indebtedness to the Society. The payment of fifteen dollars by an active member at any one time, shall constitute the person paying such sum a life member, and such person shall thereafter be exempt from payment of annual dues. Members may be elected by the Society or by the Board of Managers.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

SEC. 2. — The regular meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held on the day of the annual meeting of the Society, and on the third Tuesday of September in each year.

PRESIDING OFFICER.

SEC. 3. — The President, or in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, or in their absence a chairman pro tem., shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers. The presiding officer shall preserve order and shall decide all questions of order, subject to appeal to the meeting.

DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY.

SEC. 4.—The Secretary shall receive all money from the members, and shall pay it over to the Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same. He shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society; shall notify members of their election and of such other matters as the Society may direct. He shall have charge of the seal and such records of the Society as are not herein given especially in charge of other officers of the Society, and together with the presiding officer shall certify all acts and orders of the Society. He shall, under the direction of the President or acting President, give notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall give such notices of the votes, orders and proceedings of the Society, as the Society or Board of Managers may direct.

DUTIES OF THE TREASURER.

SEC. 5.—The Treasurer shall have charge of the permanent funds of the Society, and he shall receive all the money from the Secretary, and give his receipt for the same, which money he shall deposit in the name of the Society and shall pay out for the benefit of the Society only, in such sums as the Society or Board of Managers may direct and upon the order of the Secretary, countersigned by the President. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and disbursements, and at each annual meeting shall make a full report to the Society. The books of the Secretary and Treasurer shall be open to the inspection of the President and Board of Managers at all times.

DUTIES OF THE REGISTRAR.

SEC. 6.—The Registrar shall receive all applications and proofs of membership. He shall examine the same, and report his opinion thereon to the Board of Managers. Imperfect and incorrect applications may be returned to the applicant for correction or completion. After applications have been passed upon by the Board of Managers, he shall if the applicant is accepted, forward one copy to the Registrar-General of the National Society.

DUTIES OF THE LIBRARIAN.

SEC. 7.—The Librarian shall have the custody of all historical, geographical and genealogical books, papers, manuscripts, and relics of which the Society may become possessed.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

SEC. 8.—The Board of Managers shall judge of the qualifications of applicants for membership, and shall have control of the affairs of the Society. They shall appoint an Auditing Committee. The Board of Managers shall have power to suspend or expel any member of the Society for sufficient cause by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board present at any regular meeting, provided that at least two weeks' notice of such proposed action shall have been given to such member by notice mailed to him at his last known address. A member so suspended or expelled shall have the right to appeal to a meeting of the Society from the action of the Board of Managers.

DUTIES OF THE HISTORIAN.

SEC. 9.—The Historian shall keep a record of all facts in connection with the Society, which he may judge to be of historic value, and shall make a report in writing in at each annual meeting.

DUTIES OF THE CHAPLAIN.

SEC. 10.—The Chaplain shall perform such devotional and religious duties as may be called for by the President in the course of business or exercises of the Society.

AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 11.—These By-Laws shall not be altered, amended or repealed, unless said alteration or amendment shall have been proposed in writing at a previous meeting of the Board of Managers, and entered upon the records, with the name of the member proposing the change, and also adopted by a majority of the members present at a regular meeting of the Society, or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

CHAPLAIN GENERAL.

RT. REV. CHAS. EDW. CHENEY, D.D., Chicago, Ill.

CONSTITUTION.

(As amended at the Congress of the National Society, at Chicago, June 16, 1893.)

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name of this Society shall be "The Sons of the American Revolution."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of this Society shall be to perpetuate the memory of the men, who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the Independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; and to carry out the purposes expressed in the Preamble to the Constitution of our Country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—Any man shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor, who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to and rendered actual service in the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress or of any one of the several Colonies or States; or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a civil officer, either of one of the Colonies or States or of the National Government; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

SEC. 2. — Applications for membership shall be made to any State Society, in duplicate, upon blank forms prescribed by the General Board of Managers, and shall in each case set forth the name, occupation and residence of the applicant, his line of descent, and the name, residence and services of his ancestor or ancestors in the Revolution, from whom he derives eligibility. The applicant shall make oath that the statements of his application are true, to the best of his knowledge and belief. Upon the approval of an application by the State Society, to which it is made, one copy shall be transmitted to the Registrar General of the National Society, who shall examine further the eligibility of the applicant. If satisfied that the member is not eligible, he shall return the application for correction. No election of a new member shall be valid, unless his eligibility shall be approved by the Registrar General.

SEC. 3. — A State Society may provide for life memberships by the payment into its treasury of a sum, in commutation of actual dues, not less than fifty dollars.

SEC. 4. — The official designation of the members of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution shall be "Compatriots."

ARTICLE IV.

NATIONAL AND STATE SOCIETIES.

SECTION 1. — The National Society shall embrace all the members of the State Societies of the Sons of the American Revolution, now existing or which may hereafter be established under this Constitution.

SEC. 2. — Whenever in any State or Territory, in which a State Society does not exist, or in which a State Society has become inactive or failed for two years to pay its annual dues to the National Society, fifteen or more persons duly qualified for membership in this Society may associate themselves as a State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and organize in accordance with this Constitution, they may be admitted by the General Board of Managers to the National Society as "The —— Society of the Sons of the American Revolution," and shall thereafter have exclusive local jurisdiction in the State or Territory or in the district in which they are organized, subject to the provisions of this Constitution ; but this provision shall not be construed, so as to exclude the admission of members living in other States.

SEC. 3. — Each State Society shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of those proposed for membership, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and shall regulate all matters pertaining to its own affairs. It shall have authority to establish local chapters within its own jurisdiction and to endow the chapters with such power as it may deem proper, not inconsistent with this Constitution. It shall have authority, after due notice and impartial trial, to expel any member, who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman, shall render himself unworthy to remain a member of the Society.

SEC. 4. — Each State Society shall submit to the Annual Congress of the National Society a report, setting forth by name the additions, transfers and deaths, and any other changes in the membership and progress of the State Society during the preceding year, and make such suggestions, as it shall deem proper, for the promotion of the objects of the whole order.

SEC. 5. — Whenever a member, in good standing in his Society, changes his residence from the jurisdiction of the State Society of which he is a member, to that of another, he shall be entitled, if he so elects, to a certificate of honorable demission from his own State Society, in order that he may be transferred to the State Society to whose jurisdiction he has changed his residence; provided, that his membership shall continue in the former until he shall have been elected a member of the latter. Each State Society shall, however, retain full control of the admission of members by transfer.

SEC. 6. — Wherever the word "State" occurs in this Constitution, it shall be held to include within its meaning the District of Columbia and the Territories of the United States.

2. The President and Senior Vice-President of each State Society.
3. One delegate at large from each State Society.
4. One delegate for every one hundred members of the Society within a State and for a fraction of fifty or over.

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Congress of the National Society, provided that sixty days' notice of the proposed alterations or amendments, which shall first have been recommended by a State Society, shall be sent by the Secretary General to the President of each State Society. A vote of two-thirds of those present shall be necessary to its adoption.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. — The General Officers of the National Society shall be a President General, five Vice-Presidents General, a Secretary General, Treasurer General, Registrar General, Historian General and Chaplain General, who shall be elected by ballot by a vote of the majority of the members present at the annual meeting of the Congress of the National Society and shall hold office for one year and until their successors shall be elected.

SEC. 2. — The General Officers, together with the Presidents of the State Societies ex-officio, shall constitute the General Board of Managers of the National Society, which Board shall have authority to adopt and promulgate the By-laws of the National Society, to prescribe the duties of the General Officers, to provide the seal, to designate and make regulations for the issue of the insignia, and to transact the general business of the National Society during the intervals between the sessions of the Congress. Meetings of the General Board may be held, after not less than ten days' notice, at the call of the President General, or, in case of his absence or inability, at the call of the Senior Vice-President General, certified by the Secretary General. Meetings shall be called at the request of seven members. At all such meetings, seven shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 3. — An Executive Committee of seven, of whom the President General shall be the Chairman, may be elected by the Board of Managers, which Committee shall, in the interim between the meetings of the Board, transact such business as shall be delegated to it by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE VI.

DUES.

Each State Society shall pay annually to the Treasurer General, to defray the expenses of the National Society, fifty cents for each active member thereof, unless intermitted by the National Congress. All such dues shall be paid on or before the first day of April in each year for the ensuing year, in order to secure representation in the Congress of the National Society.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS.

SECTION 1. — The annual Congress of the National Society for the election of the General Officers and for the transaction of business, shall be held on the 30th day of April, or on the first day of May, in every year. The time, hour and place of such meeting shall be designated by the Board of Managers.

SEC. 2 — Special meetings of the Congress may be called by the President General, and shall be called by him when directed so to do by the Board of Managers or whenever requested in writing so to do by at least five State Societies, on giving thirty days' notice specifying the time and place of such meeting and the business to be transacted.

SEC. 3. — The following shall be members of all such annual or special meetings of the Congress and shall be entitled to vote therein :

1. All the officers and the ex-Presidents General of the National Society.
